

Vas Myers

I can't even breathe without Jesus. I find myself confused and unsure of everything, except when I am right by His side. Sometimes I think I am so dumb because even knowing this I still slip away from Him. Yet never do I feel Him condemning me or counting the times I fall. Instead, any consequences for my actions are only to bring me back to His loving side for my own good. My love for Him is important to Him. The fact that He treasures it so is to me a miracle in itself. This song [CAN'T BREATHE], as well as the song INTOXICATED, came from the groanings of my heart during one of those low times that did so much for me in the way of galvanizing my relationship with Jesus.

Godfrey J.
Thomson

This song [EASE IT ALL] means a lot to me. I got it when I was going through a pretty low point in my life. I realized that only God can really ease my heartache, and that He's by far the best shoulder to cry on.

Flor de Pereira
Cordoba

Katrina Levithan

I wrote GOD OF BRILLIANCE when I was living in Portugal in 1999. I was having a particularly difficult week, going through some of the confusion and heartaches common to a 20-year-old. I discovered the booklet From Jesus with Love for the first time, and would read it each night before bed and each morning when I woke up. Every time I read it, my eyes fell on the most amazing, powerful, and appropriate words of help I could have imagined. It made me eager to read more and more of God's Word, and when I did, I felt so energized, so happy, strengthened, so content and peaceful. I write songs about real experiences, when I feel something very dramatically, be it love, sadness, happiness, etc.,—and these were the words in my mind and heart at that time.

I love God's creation, especially the skies. It's wonderful to know that no matter what happens, we can have the faith and trust that just like the sun always shines again, so will everything work out in the end if we just hold on to Jesus and trust Him.

I wrote this song [MYSTERY OF THE SKIES] when I was going through a rough spot in my life and it basically describes what I was feeling at that moment, and many times since then. No one is perfect and we all constantly fall short, but the Lord's love will always be there to hold us, believe in us, and pull us through thick and thin. We can't explain it and understand it, we just have to believe it and accept it. "I know the sun will shine again because You told me so, and I believe in Your Word."